

SCHEDULE:

10-10:30	Michelle Kane-Sutton , Greater Cleveland STEM Foundation– Welcome! Learn about CleSTEM Festival, CleSTEM Foundation and citizen science
10:30-11:15	Christopher Maurer , Redhouse Studio–The Future of Bio: Biocence and sustainable construction and manufacturing
11:15-12:00	Christina Yoka , Cleveland Department of Public Health, Division of Air Quality – Citizen science and community engagement effort to monitor for particulate pollutants throughout the City of Cleveland
12:00-12:45	Carrie Bassett , Akron Zoo – Akron Zoo’s citizen scientists programs
12:45-1:30	Charles Lacy , City of Akron Watershed Division – Watershed protection and drinking water treatment
1:30-2:15	Austin Wilson – How I became an Alexa Champion
1:45	AlienCSI competition check-in begins!
2:15-3:00	Patrick Reagan , Ohio State Highway Patrol – How alcohol and drugs chemically effect the human body
2:15	AlienCSI competition begins for all registered and checked-in participants.
3:00-3:45	Patricia Princehouse , March for Science, Cleveland – The importance of a sustainable March for Science event and citizen science

BOOTH LIST:

Northeast Ohio Regional Sewer District Educational Display Room:

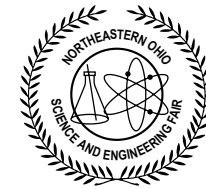

Greater Cleveland STEM Foundation
 Case Western Reserve/University Hospitals AIDS Clinical Trials Unit
 Northeast Ohio Regional Sewer District
 BW STEM Scholars Program
 Lake Erie College
 Cleveland Department of Public Health - Division of Air Quality
 March for Science
 Northeastern Ohio Science and Engineering Fair
 Microsoft
 Ohio State Highway patrol
 March for Science
 University of Akron/Cleveland
 Metroparks Zoo
 The J.M. Smucker Company
 AlienCSI

Recruitment Room:

Case Western Reserve University
 Northeast Ohio Regional Sewer District
 Kent State University
 Lake Erie College
 Baldwin Wallace University

THANK YOU TO OUR SPONSORS!

InterRayBio

Microsoft

Northeast Ohio Regional Sewer District
Keeping our Great Lake great.

eh
 EMILY HEINONEN | DESIGN